After all the hard work of preparation, Wanda Melton proudly watches her girls perform at a football game.

Evie Hill guides John Goddard into another successful assembly.

The co-captains of the varsity football team, Harold Vanderkallen and John Meza, prepare for another tough battle against Redlands.

Larry Cariato displays superb leadership at our game against Claremont.

Leadership

In the past, and in the present, our school has run smoothly due to excellent leadership. Leaders, such as Evie Hill, our ASB president, Larry Cariato, the Top Sergeant of band, Wanda Melton, the commissioner of pep squad, and all the class presidents, have helped to improve our school.

Our campus appeared somewhat cleaner than it has in the past. It was amazing that those of us with second lunch could actually walk across campus and not trip over the lunch remains of a person with first lunch. We were able to achieve this because of better programs established by our leaders. One of these programs was having students work after school to pick up our campus. These programs proved to be very effective.

Class competition proved to be an exciting and, more often than not, hilarious spectacle for everyone. As in the past, the participators and the viewers were full of bursting enthusiasm.

Leaders were certainly not silent. Evie Hill proved this fact by saying, "Somewhere in this bureaucracy we had a voice and we meant to use it! Admittedly, sometimes it got strangled in a lot of red tape, but we tried to yell loud enough so that it was still coherent enough by the time it reached 'the top.' 'We shall overcome' was definitely our motto this year! They couldn't fire us, couldn't fail us, so they had to listen to us!"

Spirit

The spirit of a school is a very important subject. The thousands of students who attended the home, and even the away games during our sports competitions, has proven how important and fantastic our spirit was.

When the people living a mile away from Chaffey could hear us screaming and yelling during our pep rallies, they knew we had lively enthusiasm for our school.

We had magnificent people to promote our spirit. Jeff Catella did an excellent job of directing our pep band. Jeff and all of the members of pep band worked many hours to become so spirited.

Our pep squad was full of bursting enthusiasm. They cheered our team through victories, such as the game against Alta Loma High School. If our team lost, as we did to Claremont, our squad's spirit never dwindled.

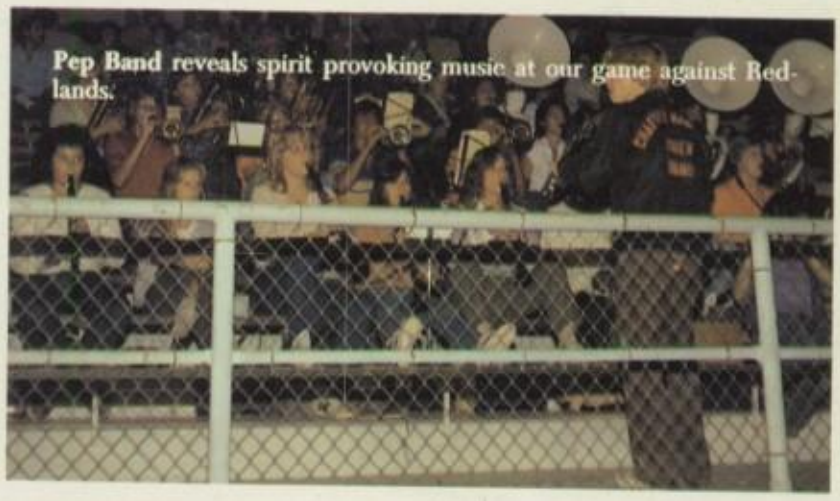
We, the students, were the main ingredient of our exceptional spirit. We yelled, yelled, and yelled some more. Through football, basketball, baseball, king and queen rallies our spirit never died. With all our loud and spirited people, our spirit may soon be as it used to be ten years ago. Annie Steritz, a varsity songleader said it very well, "With a student body as large as ours was, we should have a lot of spirit. It took an effort on everyone's part to increase our spirit and unity, but I think we did it!"

Sandi Alten, yelling at the top of her lungs, exhibits the mighty tiger spirit at our game against Redlands.

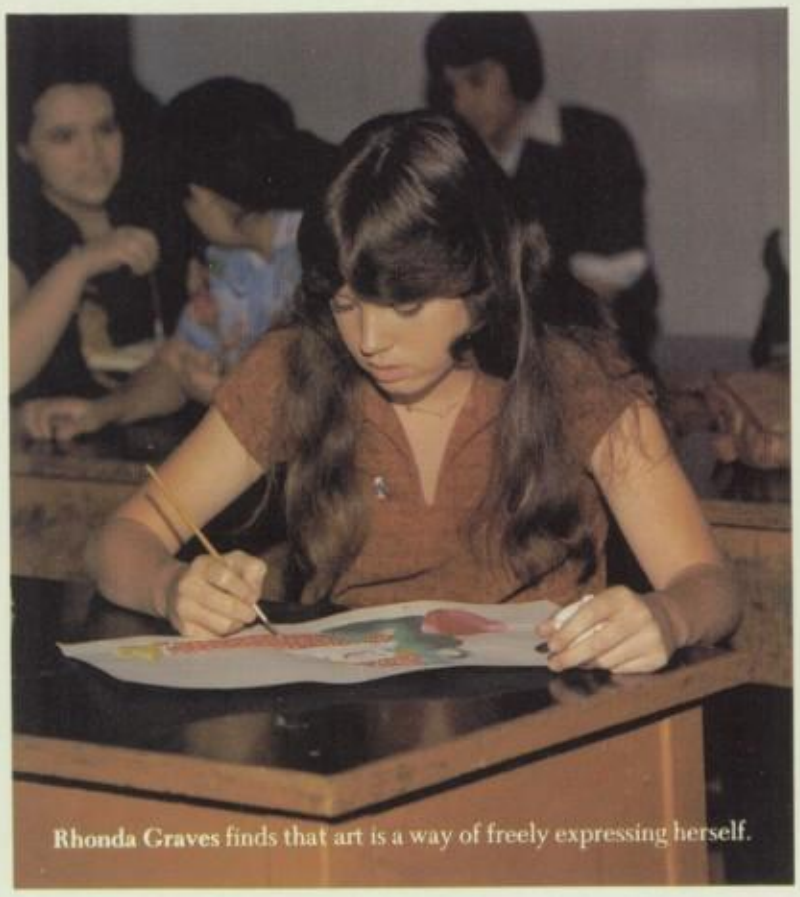
The Band and Drill team expose devoted and excited enthusiasm at Spirit Night held during our game against Glendora.

At the game against Don Lugo our spirit never dwindled and helped us win a tough battle.

Cheerleaders prove to be true fans at Spirit Night.

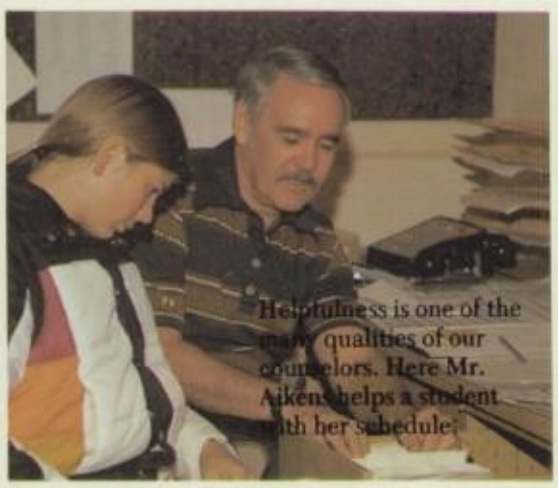


Pep Band reveals spirit provoking music at our game against Redlands.

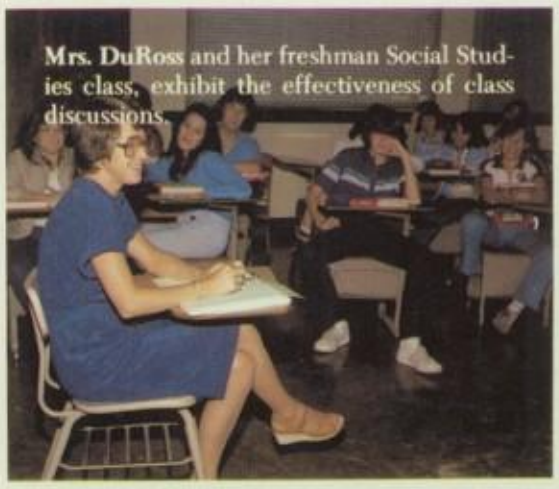


Rhonda Graves finds that art is a way of freely expressing herself.

Since scramble is so confusing, Mr. Yocum, and other teachers, are willing and able to help any student.



Helpfulness is one of the many qualities of our counselors. Here Mr. Aiken helps a student with her schedule.



Mrs. DuRoss and her freshman Social Studies class, exhibit the effectiveness of class discussions.

Academics

Rodney Thomas discovers the joys and rewards of being a homemaking student.

As in the past, our academics consisted of many elements. Our teachers were exceptional. They made learning interesting. We didn't think so, but one day we will thank our teachers for pouring so much knowledge into our minds.

We all thought homework was the "pits." Sometimes homework assignments seemed never-ending. Yet when we finished, we found we learned more than we thought we did.

Tests were a "drag," especially if we didn't study for them! What was really funny, was if we didn't study, yet we got an 'A' or 'B' on the test. That happened a few times. How lucky we felt.

Class discussions were a fun part of academics. These were the times when we could voice our opinions on certain subjects. Sometimes our class discussions twisted into "heated arguments" This happened more often than not. The "heated arguments" were generally more interesting. It was super fun to see our fellow classmates become so involved in discussions. Sometimes they added to the information given by the teacher. Stephanie Book expressed her feelings towards academics by saying, "Chaffey excells in the area of academics by stimulating the minds of students. I felt that various discussion groups, debates, and thought-provoking questions really stimulated us to use our minds.

At the football game against Fontana High School, the tigers fought tough in spite of a depressing defeat.

Competition

In keeping with Chaffey's competitive tradition, this year was no exception. Our competition was as strong and mighty as ever. Everyone joined in the fun of all our various competitions. Whether, we were viewing or participating, competition time was a fun-filled and exciting event.

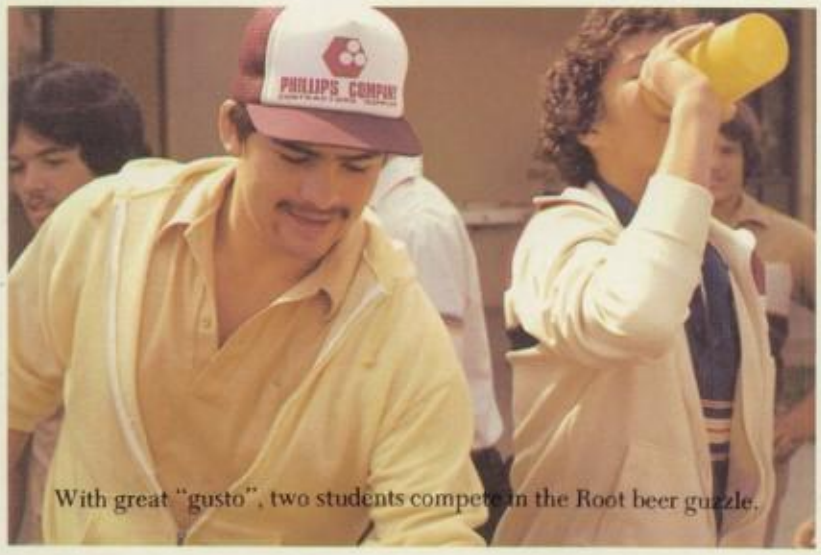
Class competitions were an exhilarating sight to see. All the hilarious games and races were fantastic. Seeing our fellow classmates doing crazy stunts was always fun. All of the classes did well, but, as in the past, the Seniors seemed to dominate the class competitions.

Serious competition also took place. We had king and queen competition, with the opportunity to vote for our favorite guy and girl. The homecoming game and the last backwards dance were the height of the competition.

The elections for class officers was another type of competition. Many people ran for class officers. Typical of an election year, many people "forgot" to vote for the candidate of their choice.

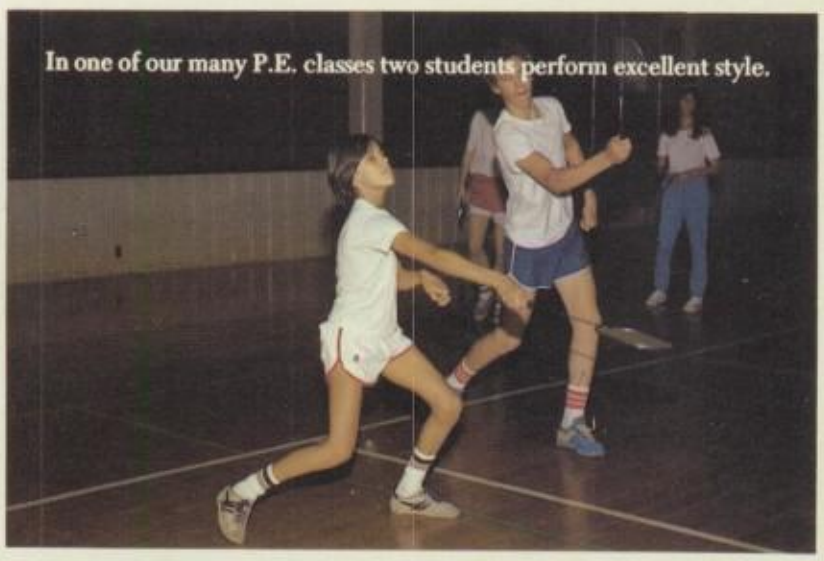
Sports competition was a main attraction also. All of the sports, including diving, track, and cross country, had good turnouts of loyal Chaffey fans. Clé Kooiman summed up our views on competition by saying, "The athletic competition here at Chaffey enables the students a way to prove themselves to their peers as well as to themselves."

The bump is a key defensive strategy the girls' volleyball team used against teams such as St. Lucy's.



With great "gusto", two students compete in the Root beer guzzle.

On top of the ladders, Alan Gushue, representing the junior class, and Jaqui Lopez, for the seniors, take great pains to be the first one to fill their bucket in one of the many class competitions.



In one of our many P.E. classes two students perform excellent style.

The Spirit Trophy is an old tradition, in which each class races, yells, and does crazy stunts, in order to receive.

At the first major dance of the year, the Fall Backwards Dance, two couples seem to enjoy time out from dancing.

Singing the Orange and Black song after each football game is a well respected tradition.

Two students regard Rich Foskett's, David Horton's, and Mark Frandsen's haircuts as rather odd.

Tradition

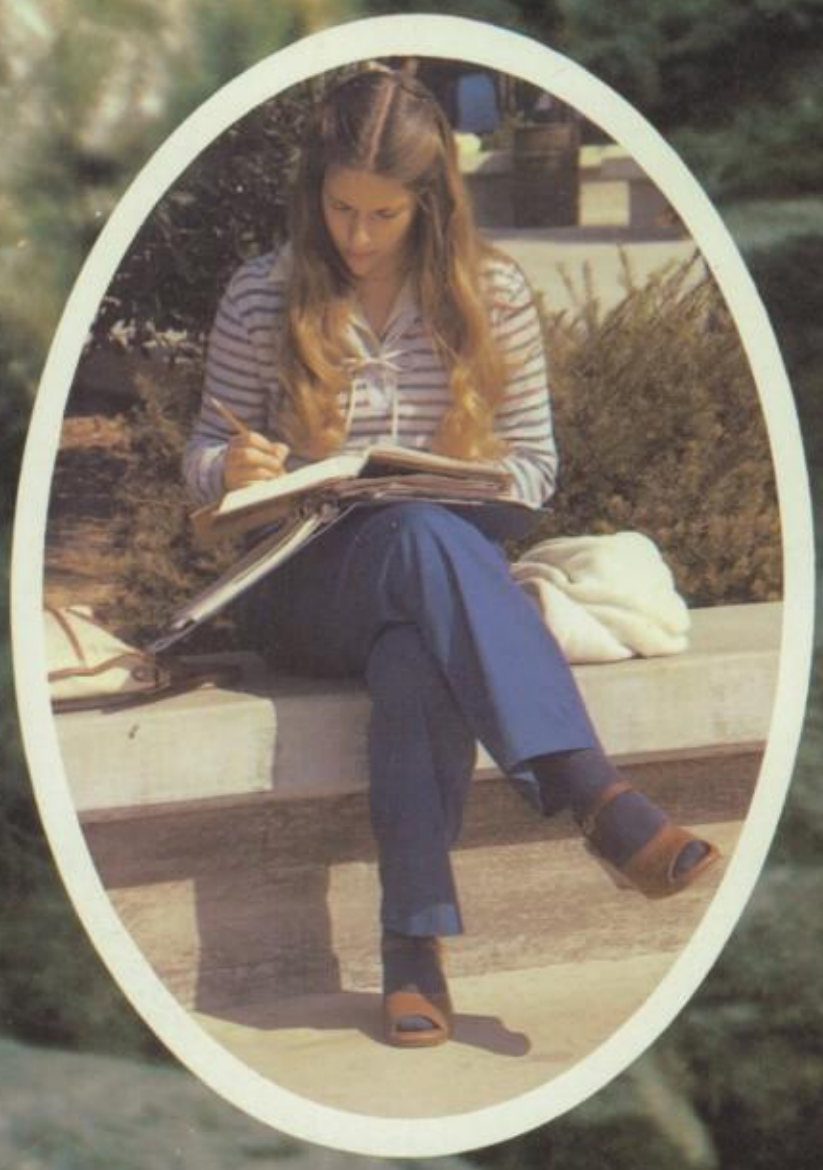
Wearing a class ring is the oldest and most sophisticated tradition at Chaffey.

Although many traditions of the past were still in effect, some new traditions were initiated.

Pep squad has had a set tradition for several years, which was giving each athlete a "goody bag" at the end of every season. It was great seeing the look on an athlete's face when he or she received a "goody bag" filled with cookies, candy, or cupcakes.

Writing our ideas and comments all over the boiler room, has been a tradition for many years. Sometimes a few of the comments were very unusual. If we had to express something we wanted everyone to see, writing it on the boiler room was an ideal spot. No one could miss the tribute to "Bonzo." Quite often some real "shockers" appeared on the boiler room.

A tradition set this year was the members of the varsity, junior varsity, sophomore, and freshman, football teams to wear their hair in a crewcut style. Coach Stark wanted his team to have unity. By having all football players wear their hair in "flat tops," he got unity. Scott Schwartz, the Quarterback for the Varsity football team said, "We cut our hair to dedicate ourselves to football and to bring us together as a unit."



Stephanie Book, like other students, finds that at one time or another her books have to be her companion due to homework.

Companionship

Companionship remained the same as in the past. Friends were seen all over the campus having a great time. Anywhere we looked, companionship was sure to be found.

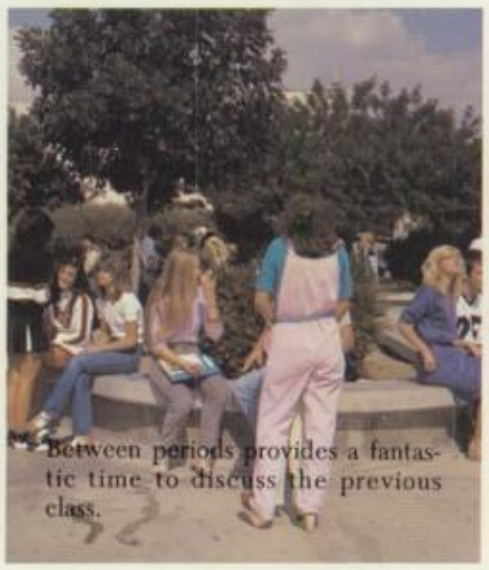
Companionship took on many different forms. A common sight was two girlfriends sharing daily gossip, telling each other many secrets, and basically sharing thoughts. Some girls compared scores on "that guy who sat behind Kim in English."

Companionship allowed guys to tell each other what really happened on Saturday nights, or about "that nice looking girl in Spanish."

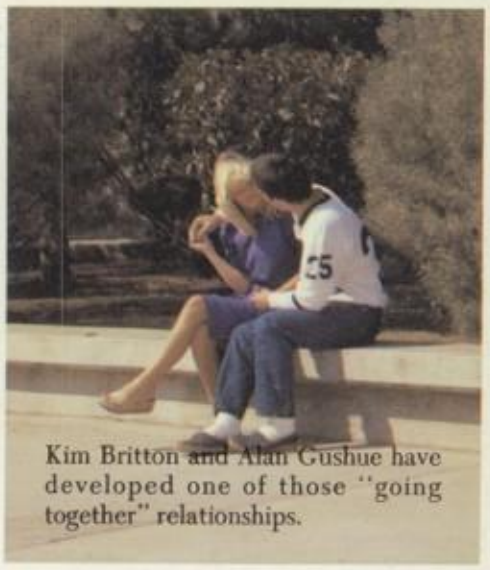
Companionship provided teachers and students the opportunity to become good friends by the end of the year.

For friends to be able to be friends was the best part of companionship. Jennie Bravinder expressed her feelings concerning companionship by saying, "Chaffey was the greatest for friends. There were so many activities and in each one you could get to know so many people."

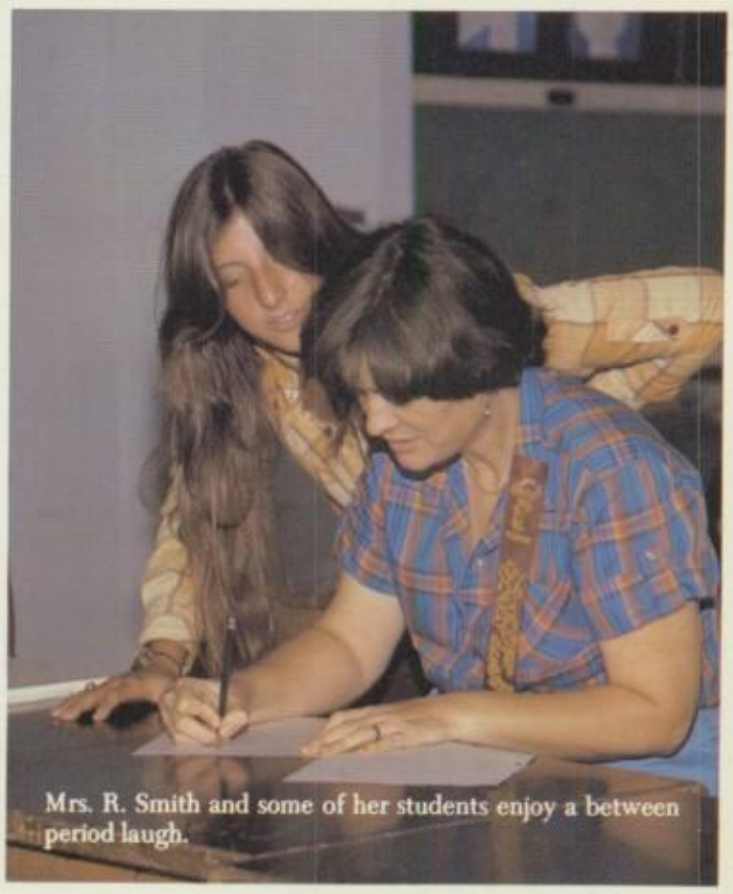
Four companions find that during lunch time is a good time to discuss guys.



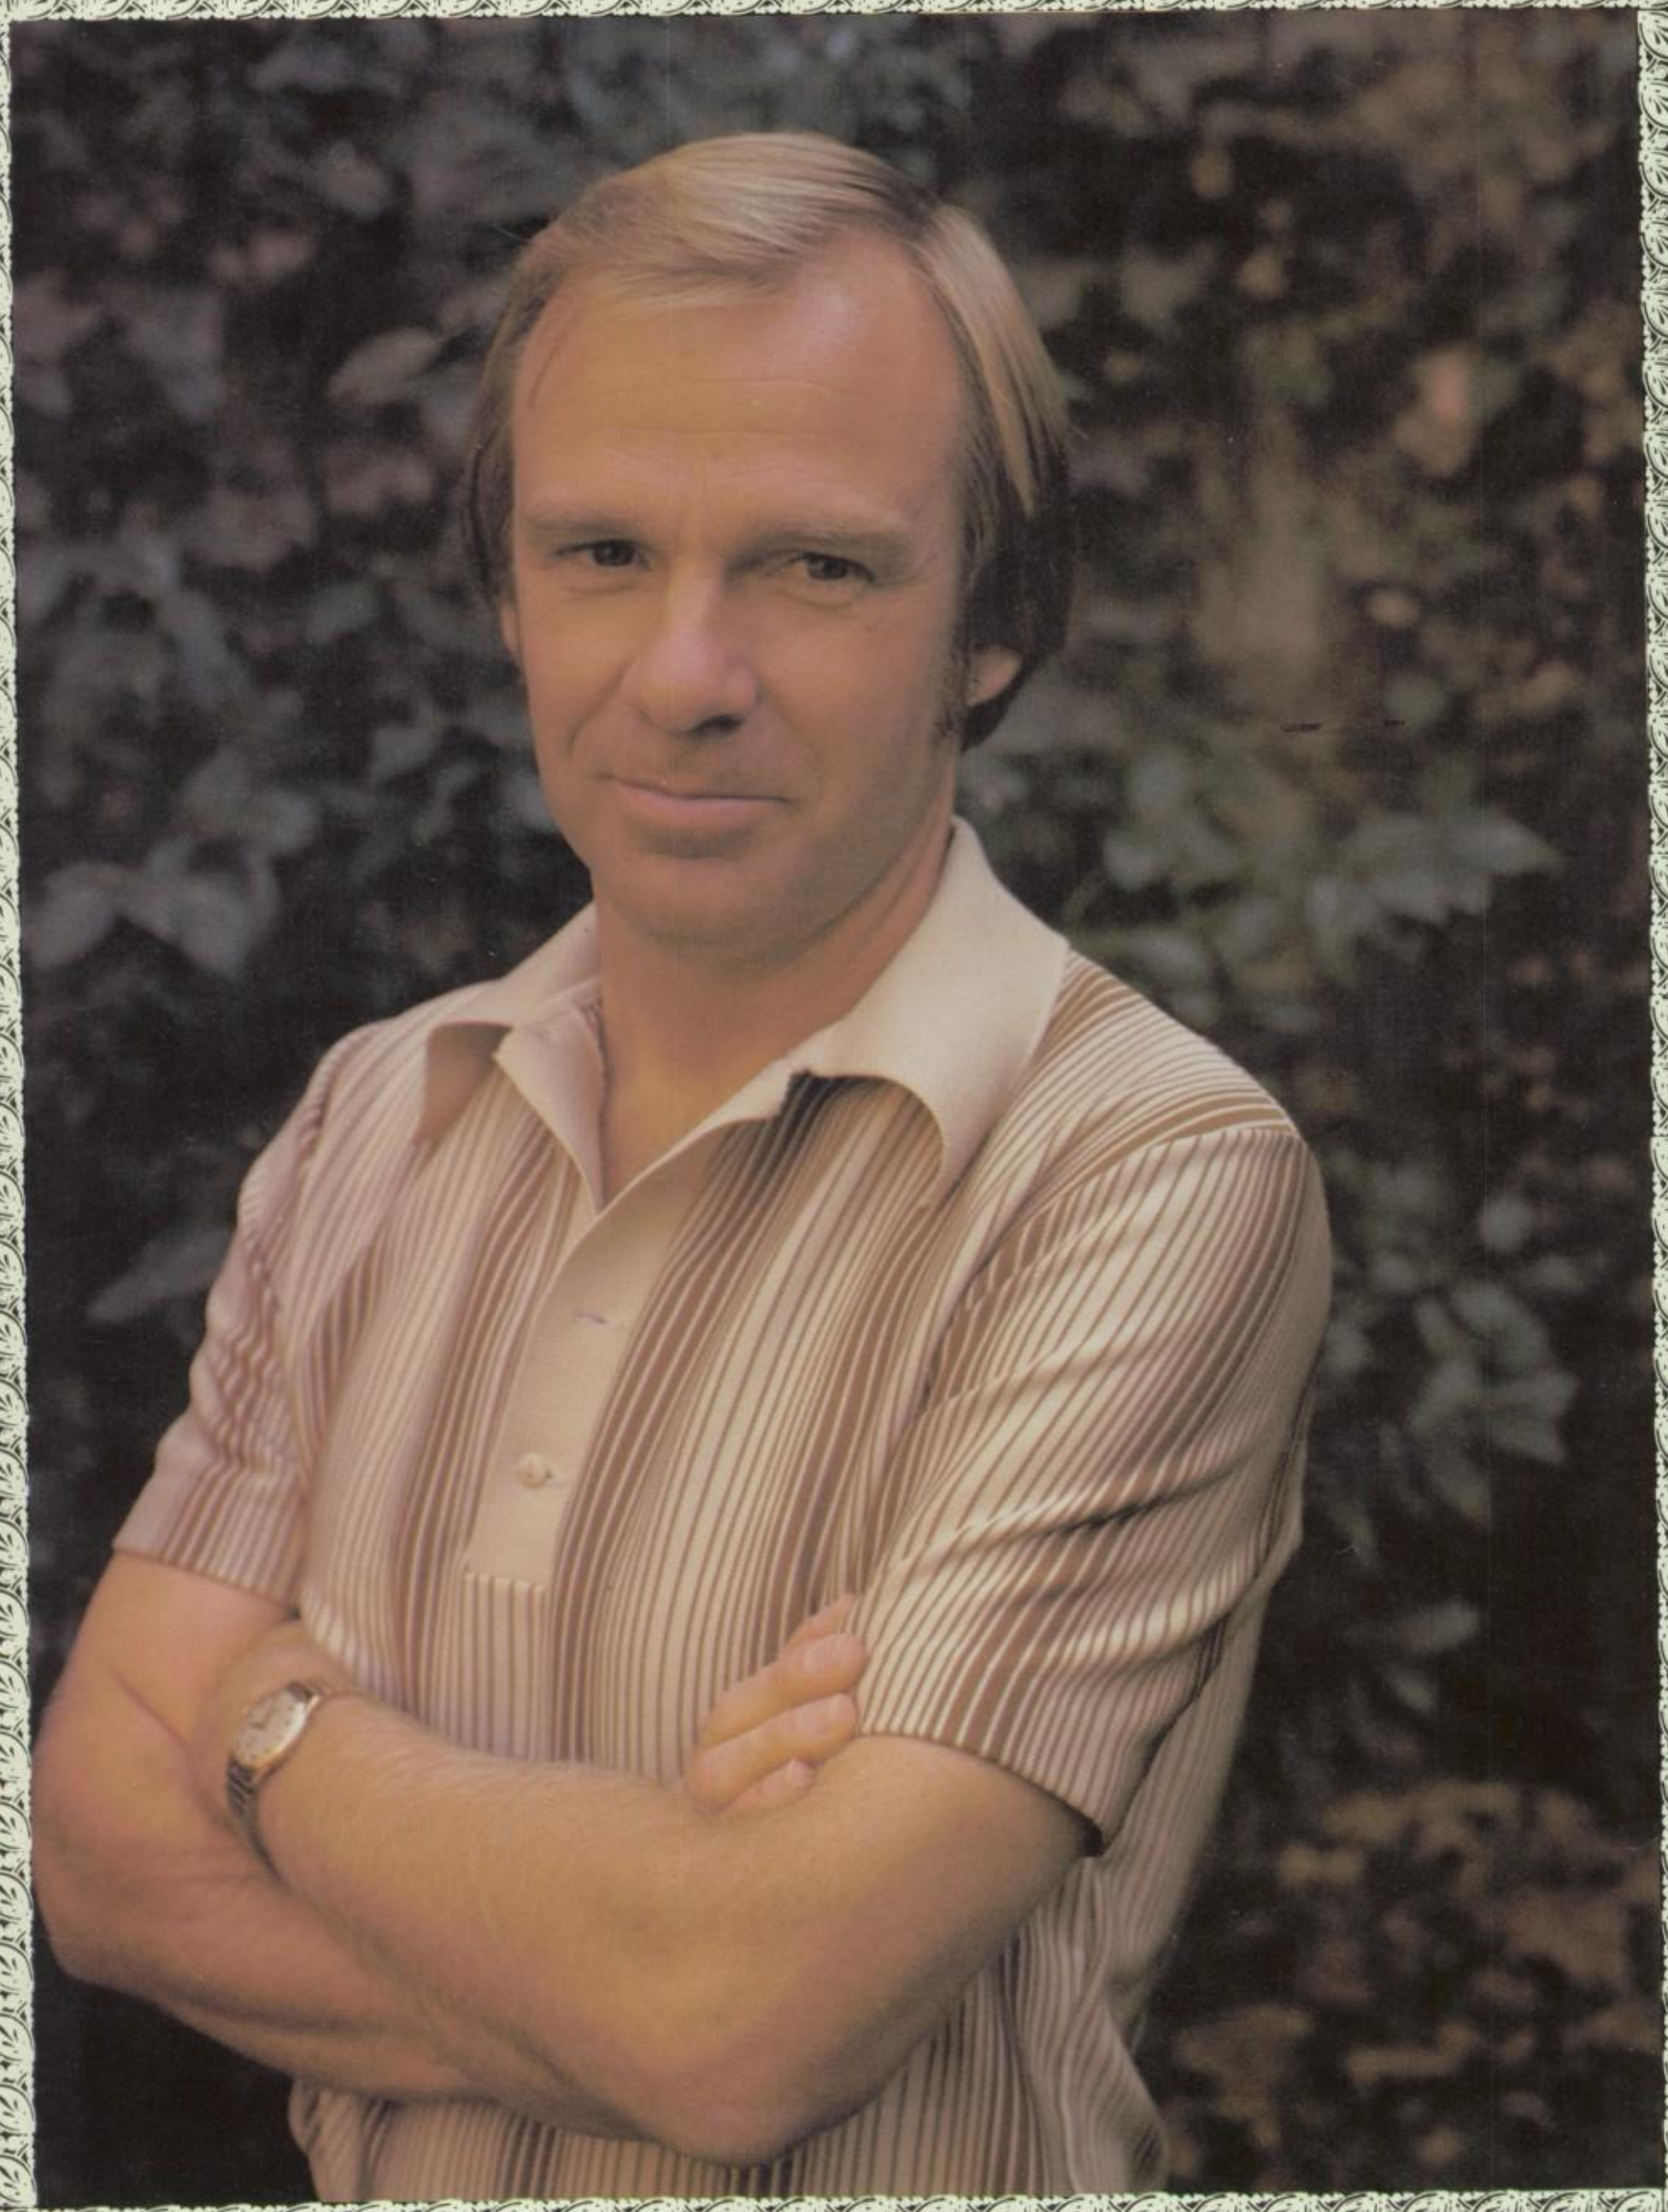
Between periods provides a fantastic time to discuss the previous class.



Kim Britton and Alan Gushue have developed one of those "going together" relationships.

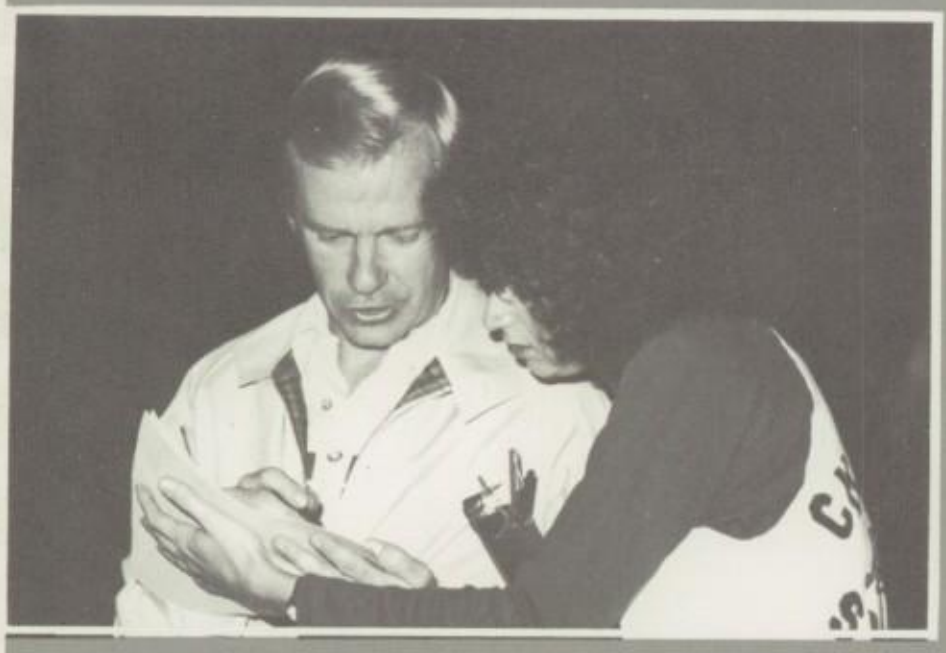


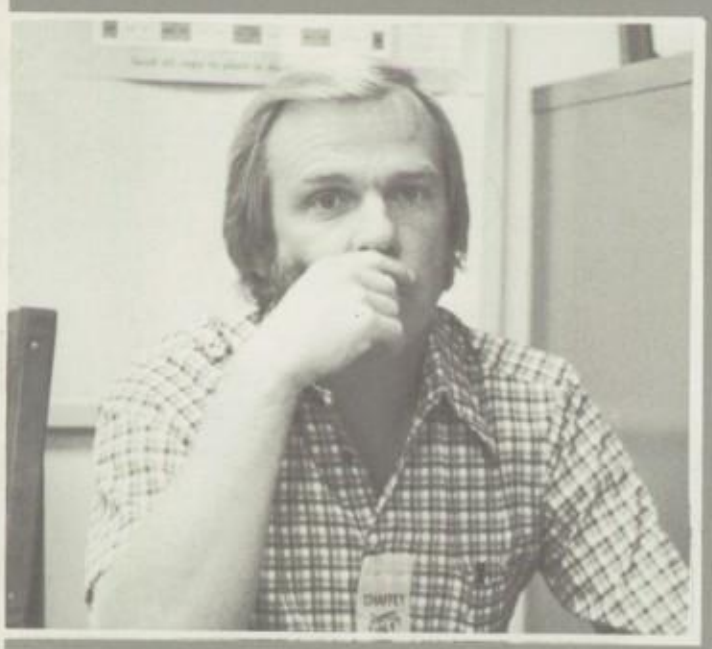
Mrs. R. Smith and some of her students enjoy a between period laugh.



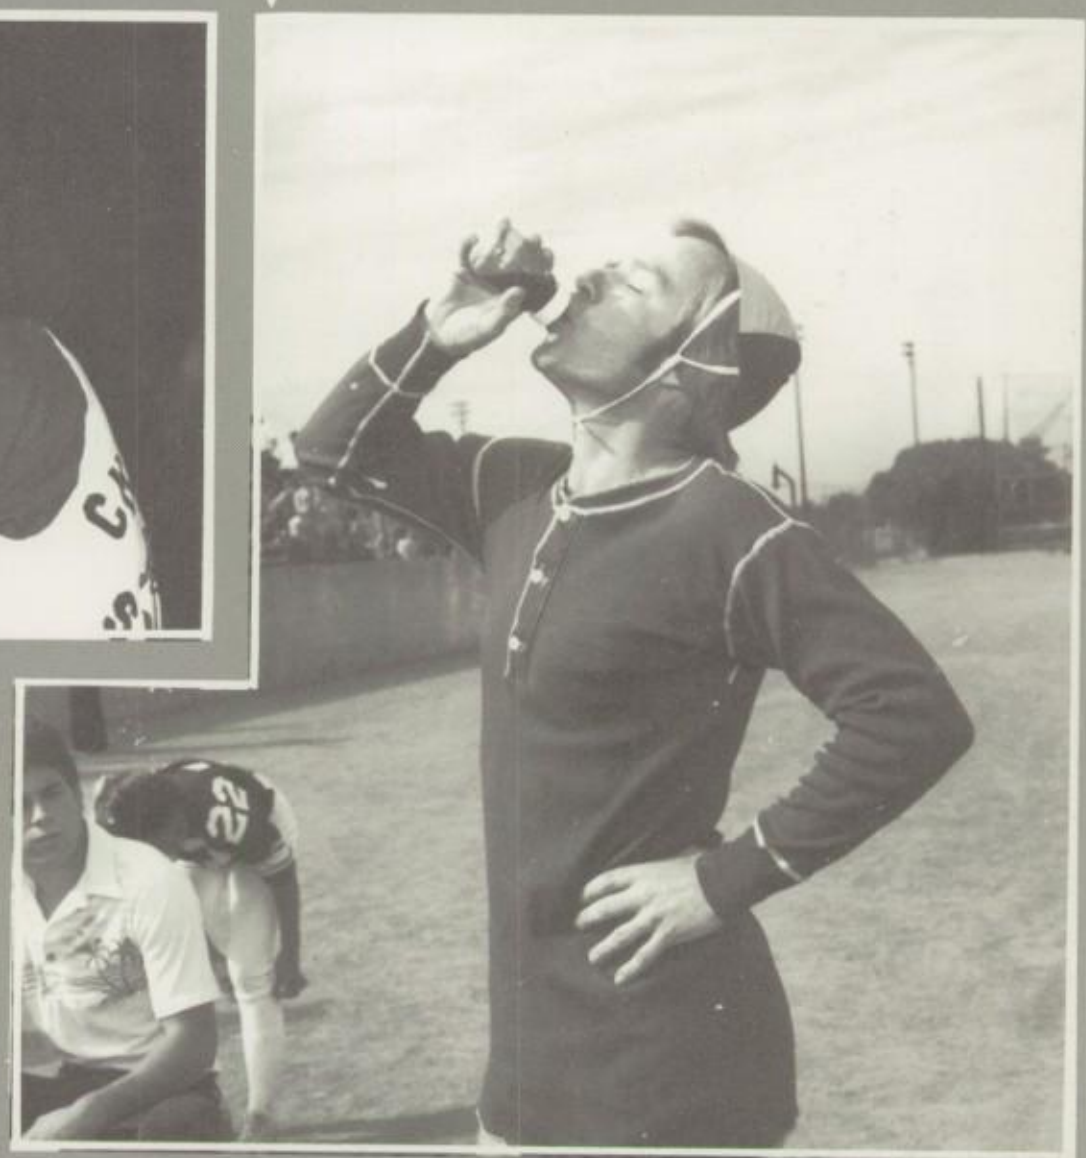
Dedication

Mr. Simpson attends each football game, in order to lend a helping hand. ▼





As the crowd giggles, Mr. Simpson aids the Seniors during class competition. ▼



◀ Mr. Simpson, being so involved with school activities needs a lot of thinking time.

The dedication is one of the most difficult decisions of the Fasti Staff. Only one person can receive this honor. After long debates, the 1981 Fasti Staff decided upon that one individual.

This gentleman started teaching at Chaffey in September of 1963. He participated in the summer school program from 1965 until 1968.

He is very athletic. He coached Water Polo and Swimming/Diving from 1964 until 1976. He then coached diving for an additional year.

He started and ran the Chaffey Invitational Diving meet. This was one of the largest diving meets in Southern California. He also coached Chaffey divers to three team titles in this prestigious meet.

He is presently the advisor for student government. In 1979 at the beginning of school he was asked to be the advisor of the 1980 Fasti. He took the job without any knowledge of how a yearbook was put together. With two years experience, he now knows all about a yearbook.

The 1981 Fasti Staff is proud to dedicate this year's yearbook to —

1981 Girl of the Year

Brenda Hamilton — Brenda carries on a fine tradition at Chaffey of being selected Girl of the Year. This award represents hours of service to the school, community, and her fellow students. A band member for three years, a member of the Foreign Exchange Club for two years, and as an employee of the student store for three years Brenda served her school well.

She has also been active in several clubs while attending Chaffey including CSF, NESC, Crescendos, and a participant in several A Capella Choir competitions. Much of Brenda's time was spent in the planning of programs as Vice-President of the youth council at her church. Service to others has been her goal as a student at Chaffey High School.

1981 Boy of the Year

Rick Bendel — Chosen as Boy of the Year, Rick has been rewarded for accomplishing his main goal at Chaffey. His goal was to achieve an outstanding academic record. As a result he has been accepted at Pomona College to pursue a career to become a doctor. He was also chosen as a Sealbearer to further recognize his academic record. rick found time to meet the deadlines as a member of the Tiger Rag staff. As a member of the newspaper staff, Rick was chosen chairman of a committee to write news releases of school events to the local newspapers. He felt "reading about Chaffey in professional newspapers boosts the students pride in our school."

Planning and sponsoring many activities during the year was the job of the Junior Class Cabinet. Among these activities were the events held during Homecoming week, which were climaxed by the crowning of the new Homecoming Queen. ART

Cynthia Stockwell has been sculpting at Chaffey for four years. She has taken all sculpting classes offered and participated in painting, ceramic wheel, and creative home arts. Her favorite type of art is still life of any sort. Cynthia plans on continuing her art as a profession. She would also like to go into interior design.

Mark Krueger is the master behind the murals we have seen in the counselors' offices and special education department in North basement. Mark has been painting murals for a year and a half. He plans to go to college and receive a B.A. in commercial art. Later he would like to "keep on painting walls and maybe do album covers." Mark's favorite mural subjects are fantasy and science fiction. "In fantasy anything can happen, you can draw anything you wish . . . it's an individual's panorama."

Sheryl Haderer is being recognized for her outstanding ability in watercolor. Sheryl has always enjoyed art. She began trying different forms of watercolor in Mr. Myers' watercolor class when she was a junior. The other art classes she has taken are, beginning art structure and color drawing, painting, watercolor and advanced painting. She also took oil painting between the ages of 12 and 14. Nature is Sheryl's favorite subject to paint. Next fall she plans to attend Long Beach State University, where she hopes to receive a bachelor of fine arts in painting and drawing.

Terri Robertson is an outstanding student in commercial art. She's been involved in it for about three years. Her art background at Chaffey included Beginning Art Color and Structure, Water Color, Drafting 1-2, Commercial Art, Adv. Illustration Design, Ceramics Wheel, and Commercial Art (independent study). After graduation Terri plans to major in Graphic Communications. She hopes to later become some sort of commercial artist.

STUDENTS FROM OVERSEAS

We have it easy at school compared to England, where they go to school from Monday until Saturday, from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Sarah Margerison, from England, has been staying with the Melton's. She has participated in almost all school activities. She is on the Activities Board. When asked what she planned to do when she returned home, she replied, "I hope to go to college and become a stock broker."

Heli Rekula couldn't believe the heat of a California summer compared to that of her homeland, Finland, which usually has a high of 65° in the summer. The U.S.A. was a bit too crowded and smoggy for Heli, with the exception of the mountains and the California beaches, which were Heli's favorite places.

Iceland, the second largest island of Europe and approximately 625 statute miles west of Norway. This island is the home of our foreign exchange student, Bryndis Gudmundsdottir. While Bryndis was here she went to Magic Mountain and really enjoyed herself.

Other skits put on by play production were "Everybody needs a Rock" and "Third Grade Christmas." They were supervised by Nelson Palmer.

The Chaffey concert band, directed by Jack Mercer, played such songs as "O Holy Night" and "The Twelve Days of Christmas." The latter was divided up between the band sections so as to bring out the unique flair of the song.

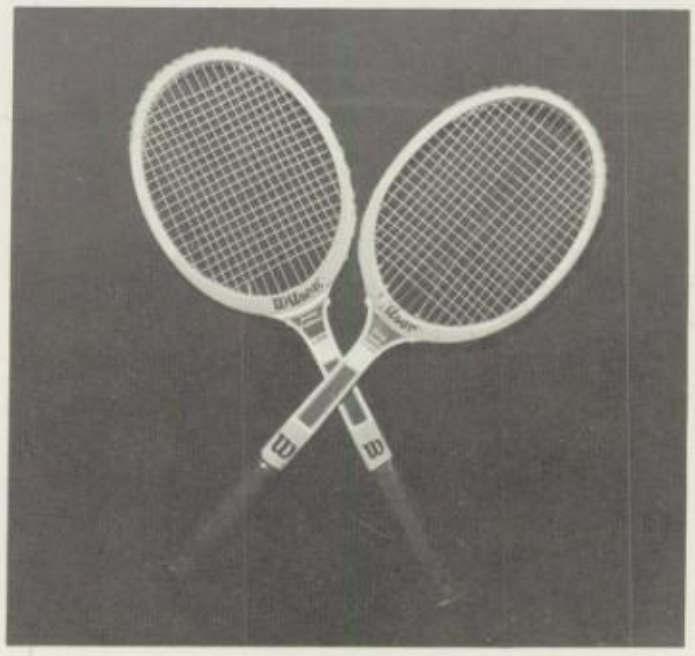
The 1980-81 play production performed two one-act plays for the student body during sixth period classes on alternate days. One evening performance was also scheduled for parents and friends of the cast and crew.

In the first play, "Sorry Wrong Number", Bonnie McMinn played a demanding invalid, who, while trying to telephone her husband, overhears him plotting a murder on another line. The intrigue and mystery is enhanced because she fails to realize that it is her murder that is being planned. In fright and frustration, she torments six telephone operators and a police officer who is trying to trace the phone call.



The second play, an except from Neil Simon's contemporary comedy, "California Suite", was about two couples on vacation together. The hilarity comes about when both couples grow tired of each other and begin to quarrel.

Although these two one-act plays came in lieu of the biannual musical, many agreed that they were both well directed and performed.

TO BE A DANCER!

Modern Dance, although it requires a lot of hard work and dedication, is one of the most popular forms of performing arts here at Chaffey.

Mrs. Miller has been a successful instructor/choreographer for 23 years. The production and advanced classes performed in an assembly and "The Holiday Fling." They also had a spring concert which the intermediate classes participated in also.

The Mexican and African heritages have a played an important role at Chaffey, by bringing cultural enlightenment. Both are considered two of the most fascinating and complex cultures around today.

During the 1980-81 Black Awareness Week, members of Black Student Union performed a culture-filled assembly. A skit starring Stephanie Staten as Harriet Tubman, and Lyndale Walls as Martin Luther King Jr., was performed. The skit involved many famous black people in history, such as Billie Holiday, Sidney Poitier and Wilma Rudolph. Coral Johnson recited a speech stating the real purpose and importance of Black Awareness. A dance routine and fashion show were also performed. For the finale, B.S.U. members sang Stevie Wonder's song" "Happy Birthday to you" in honor of the late Martin Luther King Jr. The assembly was a success.

The annual Cinco De May week was filled with much excitement. Members of Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan (Chicano Student Movement) held a series of activities during the week of May 5. Members sold fresh, homemade tamales and held a live boxing demonstration. There was also a classic car exhibit complete with luxurious and priceless cars. The climax of this action-packed week was an assembly where students performed a series of Mexican folk dances. After school, Brown Image, a reknowned rock band, performed a live concert on the quad. The 1980-81 Cinco De Mayo week was certainly a most memorable one.

Homecoming is a very exciting time around Chaffey. This year was no exception. Our game was against our major rival, Upland. This game was our last shot at C.I.F.

The excitement wasn't concentrated soley on the game. A lot of energy was projected toward the election of Homecoming Queen. The week before the dance included a parade of all the candidates, a rally during second period, elections and, of course, the half time show where the Queen was crowned.

This year's Queen was Janet Wiesen. Janet's four years at Chaffey have been very active ones. In her Freshman year she was Vice President and a member of the "Rookies." She was also Publicity manager and Vice President of Orchesis for three years. Janet was J.V. Cheerleader and Varsity Songleader. She was voted "pepster" of the year, and this year's Key Club Sweetheart. She has been an active member of C.S.F., Cross country, track and diving teams. She was also a member of "The Flower Children" and named to the Ivy chain her Junior year. Janet was very worthy of her Homecoming Queen title.

Backwards Week

The 1980-81 Backwards dance was semi-formal, which was slight change from years past. One thing that was not different was the backwards week activities. They started Monday, March 2, and ended on Saturday, March 7 with the crowning of the King. The dance was held at the Ontario National Golf Club. Included in the activities were "the coolest king" competition, where each candidate had to sit on a block of ice; the "marble competition" in which they fished marbles ot of a bucket of ice water with their toes; and a best legs competition, parade, dress up day, and a fun-filled rally.

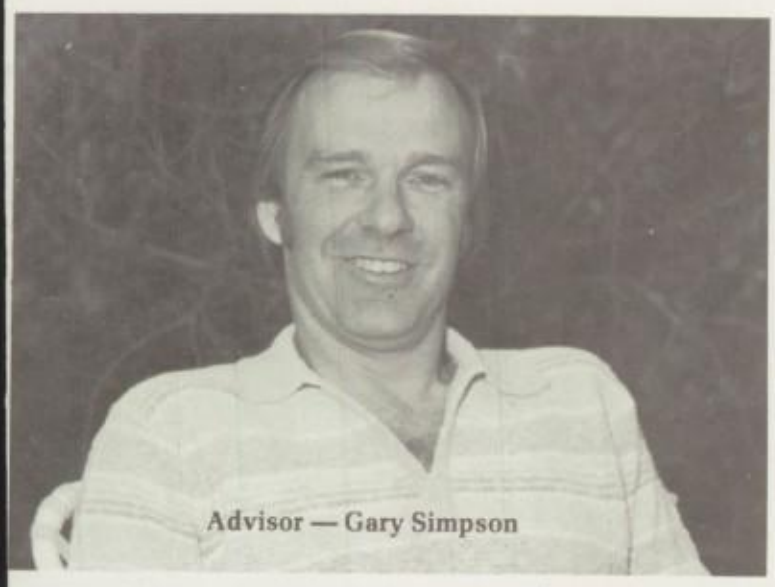
ONE CENTURY OF MEMORIES.



Advisor — Gary Simpson

Approximately 500 hours were put in by the 1980-81 Fasti Staff. In this time they worked together as a group and separately to put out an exceptional book of memories. As a group they decided on the cover design, the dedication, and the yearbook's theme. The individual staff members used their time to design the actual yearbook pages. It took about 15 different tasks to finish each of the 288 pages. Drawing up rough drafts and quad-paks, assigning and cropping pictures, job stamping, and writing captions and copy were just a few of these tasks.

Assistant Editor — Judy Armbruster and Editor-in-Chief — Patti Kastelic. ▼

Special Assistant — Janine Biddison.

The Editor-in-Chief and Assistant Editor were Patti Kastelic and Judy Armbruster. Their job was to keep the staff running smoothly, design the opening section, conduct the class surveys, and develop the theme throughout the book. A few ways they developed the theme were in the graphics, the oval pictures, and the old-fashioned background on the royalty pages.

The activities section, lead by Karen Shelton, included Elizabeth Germaine, Misty Giorodano and Carol Johnson. Their section was filled with all of the events that took place in the past year. Photographer Brent Nicolet helped out by taking pictures.

The sports section was headed by Alan Short and rounded off with members Alan McKay, Darren Sandquist, and photographer Charlie Rupert. Their job was to bring you the best account of all of the fall and spring sports they could.

#34, Harold Vanderkallen, gets caught in the shuffel with #24, Andre Carter, in the middle of a tackle executed in the Damien game. △

Precisioned timing is must to produce a touchdown. #89, Jim Schofer, nearly catches this pass thrown to him in the Upland game. △

After a very promising beginning, with a win over a highly ranked Eisenhower team, the Tigers were disappointed by two losses against traditional foes, Redlands and Fontana. That ended the practice schedule because of the addition of Don Lugo and Alta Loma now made the Baseline an eight-team league. Victories over these two new teams, and a shutout of Glendora, got the Tigers back on the track and fortunes began to look bright again. Then losses to Claremont and Ganesha dimmed Chaffey's chances for any post-season games. A final resounding victory against cross-town rivals Upland ended the season on a positive note, and enabled the Tigers to finish the year with a winning record. As expected, playoff entry was denied for the first time in six years.

One record breaking performance was turned in by the field goal kicking unit. Clé Kooiman's excellent kicking ability established a new C.I.F. and state record with a 59 yard boot against Alta Loma.

YOUNG TEAM GAINS EXPERIENCE

With only two close losses to Fontana and one to Damien, the J.V. season was a successful one. Two big wins over Redlands led a fairly inexperienced team to a winning season of 5 wins and 3 losses.

Several young men did a fine job throughout the season and will be highly recommended next year on the varsity team. Namely, Allen Gushue, David Horton, Charles Morris and Terry Owens as offensive backs. Rick Wooldridge, Eric Porter and Brian Alverez as offensive backs. Also Larry Maldanado, Dean Brown, Rick Withrow and Scott Tison as defensive ends. Ron Story, center and Rusty Hambrick, defensive tackle, who did fine jobs throughout the season.

The most important thing is that all of the juniors in the program participated and gained valuable experience needed for the varsity season in 1981.

SOPHOMORE

The Sophomore football team experienced a fairly successful 4 wins, 4 losses in their 1980 season. This occurred in spite of the fact that they were hindered by several injuries and a small turnout of thirty-eight players. The 1980 team was denied a winning season when they suffered a last minute 13-12 loss to rival Upland.

Offensive leaders were quarterback Bob Martin, halfbacks Tim Olague and Jim Elliot, with receivers Frank Porto, Fred Vunipola, Jerry Plant and Dominick Copas. The team's outstanding linemen were Larry Nikon, Ron Barksdale, Ron McGinnis, Steve Trost, Dale Jones, Moe Rod Abney and Tom Brown.

With continued improvement and additional numbers the players of the 1980 Sophomore football team should be quite successful in their following years of Chaffey football.

Our school year was a success, thanks to the people on our Activities Board. Because of them, we had rallies and dances. The Activities Board also set up show case displays, and all fundraisers and advertising. The Board made our school year an exciting and successful one.

The 1980 Girls' Tennis team did indeed swing into action. With quite a few returning players, they were a very experienced team. Coach Flaharty regroups his team to discuss their game plans.

"This year's situation was different," remarked Varsity Volleyball Coach Kevin Flaharty. "Last year's team was used to playing together. This year's team had only three returners, but our team did well."

Despite many difficulties and the unfamiliar circumstances, the volleyball team did very well, falling short by just one game, of a birth in C.I.F. playoffs, and the outlook for next year's team is good. With only two graduating seniors leaving the team, the six returners promise a good season in 1981. Baseline League Most Valuable Player of 1979, Vicki Koustik is one senior who will be greatly missed, but her leadership and outstanding playing brought the team a long way. The services of Lettie Jemenez will also be missed next year, but with returning players Blenda Selvey and Jackie Taylor, the outlook is not bleak. The team, however, was not dependent on a select group of players, the bench was very strong and supportive, and proved to be a contributing factor in many victories. All the girls on the team were high-spirited and extremely devoted to the game. Due to this devotion and the great effort of the team as a whole, the outcome of this season was very pleasing.

The team had varied routes for practice, from zig-zagging north between Euclid and Mountain Avenues, to climbing the hills above Cucamonga. Coach Ovitt said he enjoyed his position as cross-country coach for it was the highlight of his day to run with them. Coach Ovitt also thanked assistant Coach Ben Boetel for his much needed help.

The game was founded by Coach Blake and has survived the years due to the efforts of Coach Nelson. Hopefully the program will continue to survive in the many years to come.

BASKETBALL EXPERIENCES

The varsity basketball team showed great improvement over the disappointing 1980 campaign. Credit for the improvement can mainly be attributed to the attitude of this year's team. "Our positive attitude and ability to play together has helped us overcome a lot of the obstacles this year," commented senior captain Danny Arretche. Many outsiders did not figure Chaffey to offer much competition, but the team had a different idea. In early pre-season play the Tiger cagers expressed their ideas in reaching the consolation finals of the Arroyo Tournament, and picked up another win in the Orange Optimist Tourney.

He cited the efforts of seniors Vicki Koustic and Karen Kohler as especially beneficial towards the team effort. Edmon said he will always look back upon the 1980 team, his first at Chaffey, with nothing but fond memories. TEAM UNITES FOR GREAT SEASON

With a tough league to be competing in, Chaffey's girls' soccer team had an excellent season. The first year team, in the Chaffey Sports Program, had its main strong point in the "team effort" put forth by the team members. The unity of the girls made them a tough team to beat. Another thing the team had in its favor were it's coaches. Head Coach Keith Bravinder, a six year soccer coach, and Assistant Coach Sally Cavion, an outstanding soccer player herself, gave the team the knowledge they needed that made them what they were.

Four returning varsity players acquired their same positions as last year. They were Hadrian Gallo, catcher; Steve Jackson, shortstop; Rick Foskett, pitcher; and Ernie Espinoza, outfielder. The 1981 team had very good athletes, including seven varsity football players. They had no problem in developing their hitting or fielding skills. Hadrian Gallo was a varsity letterman for three out of his four years at Chaffey. Steve Jackson was a varsity letterman for two out of his four years. Hadrian is an excellent, self-disciplined short stop. CHS WINS WITH SMART TEAM

With several returning players, Chaffey's softball team did very well. With three years of experience, senior Vickie Koustik, a four-year letterman, returned to play a mean first base; with senior Monica Carrillo, a three year letterman, left to hold the outfield. Pitching for the team, two-year letterman, Blenda Selvey aided the team to mounds of success, while, two-year letterman, Sherri McMaster made the position of shortstop her own. Also returning were two-year lettermen, Bonnie England and Shelly Bauers.

The team had plenty of softball knowledge, an eagerness to learn, and ambition to execute their intelligence.

FEW RETURN TO SERVE TENNIS . . .

The inexperience of the boys' tennis team could be attributed to only three returning varsity tennis players. Blair Allen, a third year letterman, lead the team, with senior Kevin Roush, and junior Darren Sandquist the only other returning varsity netters. Despite the drawbacks of inexperience, the future of Chaffey's tennis team was bright. Freshman David Pinard and sophomores Billy Hilbert and Niel McGurty held promising talents for the future of the team.

Another Junior, a defending league champion in discus, was Bruch Parks, also had an excellent chance to make the state finals in the discus and shot put. The third best runner and as and also a Junior, was Mike Herbert. He had been on the team for two years as a varsity sprinter in the 100, 220, and 440. Relay team Coach Labareere said, "With a little luck and hard work I would hope we finish about the middle of the pack."

CROSSING THE FINISHING LINE WITH A SMILE

As one old saying goes, they were at the "top of the peak". The varsity girls' track team went miraculously undefeated all year. It was no wonder these girls did so well since nine members were on their second through fourth year on the team. The number one runner was Patty Cocek. This remarkable runner won the 1980 League Mile Championship; she also received the title of the team's high scorer. She has been on the varsity team for four years. The team also had an excellent chance for the Baseline League Championship for the second year in a row.

Number one runner, Patty Cocek heads for another long stretch win to add to her record.

Harriette Collins runs fast and jumps high for a win in the long jump competition.

Valerie Guest uses all her strength to get over the high jump. ◀

Practicing her long jumps is Bertha Robinson with total strength and concentration.

Stephanie Staten looks marvelous striding over the hurdles with great stamina. ▼

Five members of the girls' track team hope for another win to be number one.

TRACKSTERS HOPEFUL

Long hours of practice is the name of the game for these girls who want to be the best runners.

Janet Weisen concentrates on the skill of pacing so she can win.

Debbie Jollie and opposing runner get ready for take off from the shot of the gun.

SWIMMERS ON YOUR MARK, CRACK;

Grinning Wendi Vaughn is ready to spring into the backstroke.

Foreign exchange student Heli Rekula leaps for a graceful start.

Speedy Karla Radcliff sprints the freestyle to victory. ▲

With obvious anticipation, Chris Jones waits for the gun. ▶

. . . STROKING . . . SLIDING . . . SLICING.

Chris Bringman warms up.

The best method for rousing team spirit. Coach Dave Schoenborn gives Richard Dagley a quick jab to ribs.

TIME FOR A TURN; FLIP.

Doing what he does best, Greg Schoenborn does the breaststroke. ▶

Susie Wolff completes a forward half-twist. ▼

▲ Coach Morris can always rely on the helping hand of Vicki Jacobs.

Jennifer Jones, Kim Vestal, and Jill Bringman hanging around. ◀

Off the three-meter board, Bill Evans executes a controlled freefall. ▼

For the second season both the girls' and boys' swim teams were combined. This was their first season under a single coach, though. Coach Shelly Morris, with the able assistance of Margie Plyley and Dave Schoenborn, managed to contain this duel team. Varisty standouts Sherri Gramm, Jill Bringman, and Karla Radcliffe were the hopefuls for C.I.F. Both teams agreed that the 5:30 morning workouts were a drag, and their conclusion was cheerfully received by all. Cheerfully also were the busrides due to the constant vocalizations of the girls' team led by the talented soloists Jill Bringman and Kim Vestal. "Altogether it was a rewarding season," quoted one aqua-tiger, "at least nobody drowned."

DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

Many students wonder why the yearbook included the District Administration and the Board of Trustees. The reason is simple. Without these administrators, Chaffey and the other schools in the District, would not be able to function.

This past year they've had to deal with many problems which included the boundary changes and the building of a new high school.

CHAFFEY ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Fred Adams has been the Principal of Chaffey High School since 1972. He was responsible for over 4,000 students, faculty, and administrators. Dr. Adams worked with Chaffey's Booster Club and the High School Advisory Committee to see that all systems ran smoothly throughout the year.

I hope your remembe your Junior year as much as I'm remembering my past few months of my senior year. What we met I never thought anything like this would happen between us, but it did.
Both of us I know have mixed emotions about our relationship because it's always going down and then coming up again, (I like that part) but we always seem to never be upset longer than a week. Actually this wasn't suppose to last as long as it has. It was just to be a one night stand thing, but that one night meant a lot to me, and I know it meant a lot to you. It seems like I was using you, and that's what I really was trying to do, but I couldn't feed very well. Mark I care for you very much, and I know you feel the same about me. I love you nice Summer, and don't go to the beach so much, Not really.
